May 4 - 10th is National Pet Week

This week is National Pet Week- dedicated to celebrating the more than 200 million pets that enrich our lives each and every day. These pet friendly businesses would love to share some great pet products for you and your pet this week:

Auggiedog-

The Auggiedog is a recently introduced gadget that helps pick up dog waste with the click of the button. No hands need to go near the pet waste and no plastic bags need to go into a landfill. The device is self-cleaning so no smells come with the device either. Watch the video- see how it works for yourself!
